I have been informed of the following:

All members over age 18 are entitled to vote. Membership is unlimited and can be cancelled by either side in writing and without obligation of justification and will take effect immediately. Misbehaviour, hard drugs, fighting or excessive consumption of alcohol and resulting lack of control may result in expulsion from the Association.

The Association organises and carries out activities to the best of its knowledge and conscience without any liability. So all organized events are seen of private nature with each Member under his or her own responsibility as if attending any other private event. Parents are responsible for their children.

From 01.04.2009 on the Club charges a single registration fee of 3,50 €per person (over 18 years).

We have received €

Membership is FREE of charge, thus there is NO monthly or yearly fee.

I have been given a copy of the Association Mission Statement and have become familiar with it. The Applicant shall become a member of the Association as soon as the confirmation of membership has been received or her/his Member's ID card has been issued.
